Dear Ms Edwards:

Dr. Clinton M. McPherson of Lubbock, TX sent me a copy of a letter from you to him dated November 18, 1988. He asked that I respond to your request for information on spouses for the children of DAVID ARMSTRONG MONCRIEF mentioned in this letter. I have been researching this MONCRIEF family for years, plus many of the collateral lines.

The children of D. A. & JULIA A. (HARDY) MONCRIEF were:

Rebecca, b. AL 1856 (no further record, as she never appears on any other record except the 1860 census for Newton Co., Miss.) We presume she died young.

Susan Fleming, b. AL 1858 (Dr. McPherson's ancestor, & I presume that he gave you her two husbands)

William (Willie), b. 1863, MS (to TX & AL); married a VINA or Viney ca 1888, prob. Miss., as their son, MARSHALL, was reported as born February 1889, Miss. This from the 1900 census for MARION CO., AL - Pct. #6; ED 61; Sh-18, L-78. I was not able to locate them on the 1910 soundex for AL, MS, or TX. I wrote the Archives at Jackson, MS and asked them if they have this marriage, but the answer was NO.
b. MS

Julia A., b. 1867/(or 1866--two dates differing) was the child of D. A. & SARAH KATE (GRESHAM) MONCRIEF. She married Frank Acquilla MILES, 29 March 1888, Navarro Co., TX.

David Armstrong, Jr., b. 1870, prob. died young. He may appear on the 1870 census with the family, if I can ever find them. I wrote the Archives, Jackson, MS in November to see if they have out their 1870 printed census for the State of Mississippi, but it has been delayed at the printers. D. A., Jr. was also the son of D. A., Sr. & Sarah Kate. This couple does not show on the 1870 printed census for Louisiana, although family tradition relates that they were in the Opelousas area before coming to TX.

There were other children born probably in Mississippi. If you would like these, I will provide them.

I have a complete history of the GRESHAM family, who came out of Virginia--some to Kentucky, others directly to Georgia. The family we are concerned with were in Walton Co., GA. I read miles of film trying to gather deeds, probate, and even cemetery records on them there. JOHN LUMPKIN GRESHAM appears on the 1850/1860 census there, with family. The latest I could find a record on him there was a deed dated 5 Jan. 1863. Court minutes did not show anything further either. He apparently moved between that time and when D. A. MONCRIEF met his daughter, Sarah Kate GRESHAM.

D. A. MONCRIEF applied for a pension out here in Texas, for his services in the Civil War. It was approved 27 January 1900. The application was dated 8 August 1899 at Powell (Navarro Co.), TX. He enlisted in 1863 and served "until the end of the war." He was in Co. I, 53d Ala. Regt. of Cav. Unlike so many other CSA pensions I have read, he does not give the point of rendezvous for this unit, nor the battles it participated in--which might give a lead as to where he could have met Sarah Kate. There are several affidavits, some from Texas and others from Alabama, to prove his service.

My second reason for writing this letter is to inquire what you have on the EAKIN family in Jasper Co., MS? My husband's people were there on the 1850 census. They were in Clarke Co., MS in 1840, but probably moved over into Jasper County by 1850.

There were two sons that married in Mississippi, and probably a daughter. The family came to Texas by 1852, and my husband's grandfather married in Van Zandt Co., TX. He was ROBERT JAMES EAKIN, born 10 September 1826 in Mississippi, but I do not know where. His parents were DAVID EAKIN, born ca 1784, Ireland, and Mary MACINTIRE, born ca 1786, Ireland. They came to the U.S. in October, 1820, landing at New York.

There was a family in Lauderdale Co., MS who spelled their name the same way, but they are not connected in anyway to ours to my knowledge. My husband and I made a trip to Mississippi in 1975 and found very help from either county - Clarke or Jasper.

If you do have anything on this family, will you share it with me? And if you do not and wish to add what I have to your records, I shall be glad to furnish same. Please let me know.

I am enclosing a stamped envelope for your convenience in answering.

Sincerely,

Anita V. Eakin
